Beside his practice in the counties mentioned, Mr. Pulver has tried cases in more than a third of the circuits courts in the state, Thursday. in courts in Ohio, New York, Iowa, Colorado and Illinois, has handled more than a score of appeal cases in the Michigan supreme court, and seven cases in the U. S. court for the eastern district of Michigan winning in the latter court in every instance. This is aside from his work in justice and probate court cases, numbering close to six hundred. In addition he served

Owosso city as its attorney for more than five years and his resignation was accepted with great reluctance by the present commissioners. Probably no city attorney ever devoted as much time to the duties of the office as did Mr. Pulver and it is doubtful if the work was ever better handled. During his incumbency, no extra expense was ever incurred for assistance in trying cases—not even in the U.
